Ghana's Christian Community / Advocates for Christ Ghana (A4CG) group ENDORSES the re-election bid of 8 MPs sponsoring the bill on Proper Human Sexual Rights and Ghanaian Family Values

Advocates For Christ Ghana together with the Christian community is calling on all Ghanaians, especially delegates of the two main political parties to massively vote for the Members of Parliament who sponsored the bill on Proper human sexual rights and GHANAIAN family values.

Mr. Edem Senanu, Chairman of Ghana's leading Christian think-tank group A4CG - vocal supporters of the bill, commended the bold stance and commitment of the Parliamentarians:

"These gallant MPs know the heritage of our family value system and recognize the need to protect it, hence using their resources, reputation, and political power to initiate this bill. This is a commendable demonstration of leadership in touch with the will of the people and must be openly applauded by the vast majority of Ghanaians in support of this bill"

A4CG is therefore urging the entire GHANAIAN community to back the valiant MPs in the pursuit of securing their parliamentary seats in the upcoming party constituency primaries in solidarity with the candidates.

"As the National Democratic Congress soon goes to elect its Parliamentary candidates, we want to urge all delegates to vote for these men and women, who defied all odds, to protect our customs and traditions to be voted for once again. As a Christian civil society organization, we pray with these Members of Parliament, and remind them, about what the Bible says in the book of I Cor 15:58 that their labor will not be in vain". A4CG is very hopeful the MPs will all be retained to continue their good works for the nation.

The eight MPs sponsoring the private members' bill are Hon. Sam George NDC, Hon. Emmanuel Bedzrah NDC, Hon. John Ntim Foudjour NPP, Hon. Dela Sowah NDC, Hon.
